

mason editions

atillo

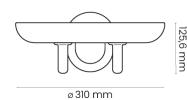

Behind Every Shape, a Story
Behind Every Gesture, a Passion

An object that is more than just design—it's a true declaration of love for Italian craftsmanship. Entirely handmade in ceramic, Atillo blends soft, contemporary shapes with sophisticated finishes, making it a unique presence in any setting.

centerpiece, fruit bowl
Davide Monopoli, 2024

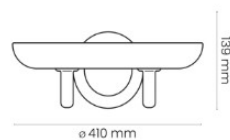

atillo small

Product type centerpiece - fruit bowl

Dimensions Ø 310 mm h 126 mm

Materials ceramic

Ivory | Pink | Burgundy | Green

atillo large

Product type centerpiece - fruit bowl

Dimensions Ø 410 mm h 139 mm

Materials ceramic

Ivory | Pink | Burgundy | Green

LONDON
LONDON
LONDON
LONDON

Vase 1 LONDON

Vase 2 LONDON

Vase 3 LONDON

Vase 4 LONDON

Vase 5 LONDON

Davide Monopoli is a Product Designer with experience in Visual Design, Art Direction and Scenography. Born in 1987 in Italy, he studied Industrial Design at ISIA in Florence. His passion and multidisciplinary approach have led him to explore different areas of design.

Before taking on the role of Art Director at Pulpo in 2015, he had experience in motion design and set design for an Italian television station. In 2018, he founded Davide Monopoli Studio, starting collaborations with several European companies. Currently, he also holds the role of Visual Designer at Vitra.

Davide's experience in motion design and visual storytelling has shaped his approach to design, combining aesthetics and functionality in a harmonious balance, with an eye for the playful aspect. Its design method is characterized by attention to detail, deep respect for materials and commitment to sustainability.

mason editions

info@mason-editions.com

TREVISO IT